Moſcow, April 19.

YESTERDAY in the Afternoon an extraordinary Council was held at Count Beſtucheff's, upon ſome Diſpatches lately arrived from the Court of Vienna. As there are no Preparations making for her Imperial Majeſty's intended Journey to Kiow, 'tis imagined that Journey will not take Place this Summer.

Naples, April 27. Advice is arrived at Court, that our Chebecks have fallen in with and taken a Tuniſian Corſair of 18 Guns and 150 Men, off Meſſina, which they have conducted to Palermo, in order to her performing Quarantine.

Leghorn, April 30. We learn by our laſt Letters from Corſica, that ſince the Departure of the French Troops from that Iſland, the Malecontents have made ſeveral Attempts to drive the Genoeſe from the Poſts of Paludella and San Fiorenzo; but as they have always been repulſed with Loſs, 'tis imagined they will make no more Attempts on that Side. The ſame Letters add, that the Malecontents have ſeized upon one of their Chiefs, whom they accuſe of having carried on a ſecret Correſpondence with the Marqueſs de Grimaldi, the Republick's Commiſſary General in that Iſland. They write from Florence, that the Hereditary Prince of Anſpach arrived there on Monday laſt from Rome; and that his Highneſs was to continue his Journey in a Day or two for Germany.

Genoa, May 3. The Chevalier Chauvelin, the French Envoy Extraordinary and Miniſter Plenipotentiary to this Republick, had his Audience of Leave of the Doge and Senate on Friday laſt, and propoſes to ſet out the Beginning of next Week on his Return to Paris; and M. Faucher, his firſt Secretary, is appointed to take Care of the Affairs of France at this Court, till the Arrival of another Miniſter. We are informed by the Maſter of a Pink lately arrived from Barcelona, that the Fleet which has been for ſome Time equipping in the different Ports of Spain, will put to Sea ſome Time in July. We are informed, that beſides the Orders given ſome Time ago by his Catholick Majeſty, for putting his Troops on the ſame Footing they were at the Time of making the late Peace, Orders are ſince iſſued for making ſome Augmentations to the Army. Prince Doria, who went from hence to Turin, to take the Inveſtiture of certain Fiefs which he is poſſeſſed of in the Dominions of the King of Sardinia, is returned here from thence, greatly ſatisfied with the Reception he met with at that Court.

Dantzick, May 6. The Contentions between the Clergy and Nobility of the Kingdom of Poland, become every Day more ſerious; and 'tis feared they will be attended with bad Conſequences.

Stockholm, May 8. The King, who went on the 3d Inſtant to Ulrichſdahl, being the firſt Time of his Majeſty's going Abroad ſince his late Illneſs, returned Yeſterday to his Palace in this City, in perfect Health. The Prince Royal is alſo recovered of his late Fever, and appears in Publick as before. The ſame Day, about Noon, his Majeſty arrived here, and ſet out early the next Morning for Neiſs, on his Return to Potzdam.

Vienna, May 12. Her Imperial Majeſty has added four Profeſſors of Equity to the Univerſity of this City, on each of whom ſhe has ſettled a conſiderable Income. A large Quantity of Artillery has been embarked upon the Danube within theſe few Days paſt, being intended for the Uſe of the Camp that is going to be formed at Kitſee.

Leipſick, May 15. Their Poliſh Majeſties, accompanied by the Prince Royal, with the Princeſs his Spouſe, and the Princes Xavier and Charles, and attended by moſt of the principal Lords and Ladies of the Court, arrived here on Sunday laſt from Dreſden, on Purpoſe to honour the Fair of this Place with their Preſence for ſome Days; ſince which the Nobility and Gentry are continually coming in from all the Country round us, which makes our Fair this Year extremely brilliant.

Berlin, May 15. The King arrived here laſt Night from Sileſia in perfect Health. His Majeſty has appointed M. Negelein to be Counſellor of the Court of Juſtice of Koningſberg, vacant by the Death of M. Sahme. A great Number of Foreign Officers are arrived here, in order order to be present at the grand Review that is shortly to be made of the Troops that are to be encamped in the Neighbourhood of Spandau. On Thursday Night last an Express arrived here, with an Account of the Death of Prince Maximilian of Hesse, Brother to the Spouse of Prince Henry, for whom this Court will go immediately into Mourning.

Paris, May 18. Their Majesties, and all the Royal Family, went on Monday last to Marly, where they propose staying till the 30th Instant. Brussels, May 20. On Sunday last, being the Empress Queen's Birth-day, Prince Charles of Lorrain, our Governor General, went in great State to the Church of St. Gudule; where were likewise, the Members of the Privy Council, the Council of the Finances, that of Brabant, the Chamber of Accompts, and the Magistrates of this City in a Body. When Divine Service was over, his Highness returned to the Palace, where he received the Compliments of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and Gentry, on that Occasion; after which he dined in Publick, and at Night gave a grand Supper, and afterwards a Ball for the Entertainment of the Ladies. The Regiment of Prince Charles of Lorrain, which is here in Garrison, passed in Review last Friday before the Commissaries of War, and made a fine Appearance. Last Week four Companies of the Regiment of Trip's Dragoons, in the Service of the Dutch, arrived at Tournay from Maestricht, where they have been for a long Time in Garrison.

Hague, May 22. The Deputies of the several Colleges of the Admiralty of these Provinces have opened their Assembly, and apply themselves, with great Attention, to the Affairs of their Department.
